BIMINI CAPITAL MANAGEMENT ANNOUNCES FOURTH QUARTER 2020 RESULTS

VERO BEACH, Fla. (March 11, 2021) – Bimini Capital Management, Inc. (OTCBB:BMNM), (“Bimini Capital,” “Bimini,” or the “Company”) today announced results of operations for the three month period ended December 31, 2020.

Fourth Quarter 2020 Highlights

- Net income of $12.1 million, or $1.04 per common share
- Income tax benefit of $10.7 million, or $0.92 per common share
- Book value per share of $2.97
- Company to discuss results on Friday, March 12, 2021, at 10:00 AM ET

Management Commentary

Commenting on the fourth quarter results, Robert E. Cauley, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, “As we sit here today, it is very sobering when we reflect on how much has transpired between March of 2020 and March of 2021. The month that seemed like it would never end finally did, and there were many dark days in between, but we clearly seem to be emerging from this dark episode that none of us will ever forget. The immediate impact of the turmoil in the financial markets last March was negative for Bimini and all levered MBS investors. We shrank our portfolio and reduced our hedges to preserve liquidity. We downsized maybe more than was needed but in doing so we were left with some dry powder to take advantage of the many very attractive investment opportunities that were available at the time. We slowly rebuilt our portfolio, acquiring securities with mid to high teen ROE expected returns, but also materially increased our holdings of Orchid Island Capital since the stock was trading at a yield in excess of 20%. The Agency MBS market recovered quickly, with the help of asset purchases by the Federal Reserve. The investment strategy of both Royal Palm and Orchid Island Capital have always been exclusively Agency RMBS and this proved very beneficial in 2020. We believe we had an effective strategy that was executed well. In spite of the fact the Royal Palm portfolio shrank by 70% during the year Bimini had higher net revenues in 2020 versus 2019.

“While the effect of the market turmoil last March led us to reduce the Royal Palm portfolio drastically, resulting in a 52% reduction in interest income for the year, it also led to a significant reduction in our borrowing cost as the Federal Reserve reduced short term interest rates to near zero. The net effect was a modest 9% reduction in net interest income of the portfolio, inclusive of the interest expense on our trust preferred debt. Because Orchid Island performed well over the course of the year and its stock traded at or above book value for much of the balance of the year, Orchid was able to raise additional capital and ended the year with a larger equity base than it began the year with. Advisory service revenues were only down 2% for the year. Finally, because we added to our ORC share holdings from approximately 1.5 million shares to approximately 2.6 million shares, dividend income increased 20%. As a result of the strong recovery in revenues and the equity base at Orchid we revised our deferred tax asset valuation allowance, reducing the allowance such that deferred tax asset is approximately 2% higher than year-end 2019.

“As we enter 2021 the market remains favorable for our Agency RMBS strategy. Interest rates are rising, applying modest pressure on our book value, but this should also place modest downward pressure on prepayments. Since year-end Orchid Island has executed two secondary capital raises, increasing its equity base by nearly 25%. We anticipate increased advisory service revenue for the first quarter of 2021. In the end, Bimini remains focused on maximizing the utilization of our NOL’s and growing Royal Palm’s portfolio. While 2020 was a challenging year, it did not prevent us from making progress on our long-term goal.”

Details of Fourth Quarter 2020 Results of Operations

The Company reported net income of $12.1 million, or $1.04 per common share, for the three-month period ended December 31, 2020. As Orchid was able to grow its capital base during the quarter advisory service revenues increased 12%. Interest income was down very modestly by 1% and repurchase agreement interest expense was essentially unchanged. Net revenues increased 8%. We recorded a $0.55 million mark to market gain on our shares in ORC, on top of the $0.79 million gain in the third quarter. The income tax benefit of $10.7 million was a result of the reassessment of our deferred tax asset valuation allowance and did not impact cash flows as it is a non-cash GAAP accounting adjustment. The results for the quarter also included operating expenses of $1.66 million versus $1.62 million in the third quarter, a 3% increase.

An effective duration of 3.196 indicates that an interest rate increase of 1.0% would be expected to cause a 3.196% decrease in the value of the MBS in the Company’s investment portfolio at December 31, 2019. These figures include the structured securities in the portfolio but not the effect of the Company’s hedges. Effective duration quotes for individual investments are obtained from The Yield Book, Inc.

Financing, Leverage and Liquidity

As of December 31, 2020, the Company had outstanding repurchase obligations of approximately $65.1 million with a net weighted average borrowing rate of 0.25%. These agreements were collateralized by MBS with a fair value, including accrued interest, of approximately $65.4 million, and cash pledged to counterparties of approximately $3.4 million. At December 31, 2020, the Company’s liquidity was approximately $7.6 million, consisting of unpledged MBS and cash and cash equivalents.

We may pledge more of our structured MBS as part of a repurchase agreement funding, but retain cash in lieu of acquiring additional assets. In this way, we can, at a modest cost, retain higher levels of cash on hand and decrease the likelihood we will have to sell assets in a distressed market in order to raise cash. Below is a listing of outstanding borrowings under repurchase obligations at December 31, 2020.

(1) Equal to the fair value of securities sold plus accrued interest receivable and cash posted as collateral (if any), minus the sum of repurchase agreement liabilities and accrued interest payable.

Hedging

In connection with its interest rate risk management strategy, the Company economically hedges a portion of the cost of its repurchase agreement funding and also its junior subordinated notes by entering into derivative financial instrument contracts. The Company has not elected hedging treatment under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) in order to align the accounting treatment of its derivative instruments with the treatment of its portfolio assets under the fair value option election. As such all gains or losses on these instruments are reflected in earnings for all periods presented. As of December 31, 2020, such instruments were comprised entirely of Eurodollar futures contracts.

The table below presents information related to outstanding Eurodollar futures positions at December 31, 2020.

Book Value Per Share

The Company's Book Value Per Share at December 31, 2020 was $2.97. The Company computes Book Value Per Share by dividing total stockholders' equity by the total number of shares outstanding of the Company's Class A Common Stock.
